2022 TERMS AND CONDITIONS

BOOKING, PAYMENT, CANCELLATION AND CHANGE TERMS & CONDITIONS

All rates are quoted per person, in U.S. Dollars and are subject to taxes and fees where applicable. Alaska Travel Adventures requires payment in full at time of booking; however you may cancel outside of 14 days and receive a full refund. Cancellations received within 14 days of departure are non-refundable. If you are on a cruise ship, the onboard Shore Excursion Office cannot assist with refunds/adjustments. For assistance with cancellations, please call Alaska Travel Adventures at 1-800-323-5757, or, for last minute cancellations, contact the local number on your tour voucher.

GUEST RESPONSIBILITIES

All guests will be required to follow safety policies and procedures and the guides' instructions during activities. All guests must meet minimum age and or weight requirements at the time of travel. All guests will be required to sign a waiver of inherent risks on all water activities and jeep tours on the day of their trip. Due to the possibility of inclement weather, it is recommended that you wear warm, layered clothing, a waterproof jacket and comfortable slip-proof shoes. Alaska Travel Adventures provides raingear on applicable tours.

WEATHER CONSIDERATIONS

Alaska Travel Adventures reserves the right to cancel trips due to unsafe conditions in which case you may reschedule to an alternative date/time (subject to availability) or you will be refunded in full. Rain is not considered an unsafe condition – raingear is provided for many tours. In the event of trip cancellation, Alaska Travel Adventures is not responsible for additional expenses incurred by guest, such as penalties incurred through the purchase of non-refundable airline tickets, medical expenses and passport and visa fees.

IMMIGRATION & CUSTOMS

All guests on our Yukon Sightseeing by Hummer must travel with a valid passport or Customs approved identification. All non U.S. citizens must carry a passport and appropriate visas.
